Tulare County Office of Education Announces:

Annual Student Art Exhibition Now Open

Open Monday – Friday, 8:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. • Education Center, 2637 West Burrel, Visalia

Visalia - The Tulare County Office of Education hosts three art exhibits each year – one in the fall, one in the early spring and a “Best of Show” Exhibition in March. The first of these exhibitions is now open to the public, and will remain on display through Friday, January 14, 2011. The artwork is displayed in the Education Center at 2637 West Burrel Avenue in Visalia, which is open to the public from 8:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Featured in this exhibition are works by students from the following school districts: Alta Vista, Buena Vista, Burton, Citrus South Tule, Dinuba Unified, Earlimart, Exeter Public Schools, Farmersville Unified, Hope, Hot Springs, Palo Verde and Porterville Unified. Prior to the close of the exhibition, a panel of judges will select pieces for display in the “Best of Show” Exhibition in March 2011 – California Arts Education Month. The second exhibition of art from additional Tulare County School Districts will be held January 20 - February 25, 2011.
