2023-24 School Description and Mission Statement

University Preparatory High School (UPHS) is a full-service, WASC accredited "Early College" high school, serving students in grades 9-12, located on the campus of the College of the Sequoias (COS) in Visalia, California. Students attend all four years of high school on the college campus and have the opportunity to earn a significant number of college credits while they are in high school. This is accomplished through an early-college approach which consists of taking both high school and college classes concurrently. UPHS Students complete an intensive college-preparatory high school program which includes completing a minimum of 20 college credits at COS.

The UPHS mission is to provide all students with a college preparation program leading to college and career readiness, indepth experience in college classes, and accumulation of college credits, in addition to meeting the high school graduation requirements. Also, the mission of UPHS is to provide multiple opportunities for students to participate in community service, service-learning, leadership, and a robust visual and performing arts program. Working hand-in-hand with COS, UPHS offers students a unique experience in which they acquire the college classroom experience necessary to become highly focused, confident, and self-motivated students who are well prepared for the academic rigors of college. Moreover, they develop many skills leading to college and career success, such as how to navigate what can be confusing aspects of college registration, matriculation requirements, how to use college-level technology in an academic setting, how to effectively develop and implement an academic college plan, how to seek academic support when needed, and how to successfully approach particularly challenging college classes.

While UPHS students can meet all of the University of California/California State University (UC/CSU) "A through G" requirements through high school classes, they also have the option of meeting those same requirements through college classes at COS, thereby simultaneously earning high school graduation credit, college credit, and meeting UC/CSU eligibility expectations. Finally, the entire course catalogue of college classes available at COS is open to UPHS students (as long as they meet the prerequisites), providing them with many options for developing, planning, and implementing a personal plan leading to a successful college experience and career readiness.

School Facility Conditions and Planned Improvements

University Preparatory High School classes take place in rooms that are located at and leased from the College of the Sequoias. As such, they are routinely inspected by the college itself and meet all state, federal, and ADA requirements. The Tulare County Office of Education conducted a FIT report in September of 2023. In that inspection, the final overall school rating was "Exemplary." The College of the Sequoias provides safe, clean, up-to-date facilities for University Preparatory High School.

B. Pupil Outcomes

State Priority: Pupil Achievement

The SARC provides the following information relevant to the State priority: Pupil Achievement (Priority 4):

Statewide Assessments

(i.e., California Assessment of Student Performance and Progress [CAASPP] System includes the Smarter Balanced Summative Assessments for students in the general education population and the California Alternate Assessments [CAAs] for English language arts/literacy [ELA] and mathematics given in grades three through eight and grade eleven. Only eligible students may participate in the administration of the CAAs. CAAs items are aligned with alternate achievement standards, which are linked with the Common Core State Standards [CCSS] for students with the most significant cognitive disabilities).

The CAASPP System encompasses the following assessments and student participation requirements:

- 1. Smarter Balanced Summative Assessments and CAAs for ELA in grades three through eight and grade eleven.
- 2. Smarter Balanced Summative Assessments and CAAs for mathematics in grades three through eight and grade eleven.
- 3. California Science Test (CAST) and CAAs for Science in grades five, eight, and once in high school (i.e., grade ten, eleven, or twelve).

College and Career Ready

The percentage of students who have successfully completed courses that satisfy the requirements for entrance to the University of California and the California State University, or career technical education sequences or programs of study.

Percentage of Students Meeting or Exceeding the State Standard on CAASPP

This table displays CAASPP test results in ELA and mathematics for all students grades three through eight and grade eleven taking and completing a state-administered assessment.

Percentages are not calculated when the number of students tested is ten or less, either because the number of students in this category is too small for statistical accuracy or to protect student privacy.

ELA and mathematics test results include the Smarter Balanced Summative Assessment and the CAA. The "Percent Met or Exceeded" is calculated by taking the total number of students who met or exceeded the standard on the Smarter Balanced Summative Assessment plus the total number of students who met the standard (i.e., achieved Level 3-Alternate) on the CAAs divided by the total number of students who participated in both assessments.

Subject	School 2021-22	School 2022-23	District 2021-22	District 2022-23	State 2021-22	State 2022-23

2022-23 CAASPP Test Results in ELA by Student Group

This table displays CAASPP test results in ELA by student group for students grades three through eight and grade eleven taking and completing a state-administered assessment.

ELA test results include the Smarter Balanced Summative Assessment and the CAA. The "Percent Met or Exceeded" is calculated by taking the total number of students who met or exceeded the standard on the Smarter Balanced Summative Assessment plus the total number of students who met the standard (i.e., achieved Level 3-Alternate) on the CAAs divided by the total number of students who participated in both assessments.

Double dashes (--) appear in the table when the number of students is ten or less, either because the number of students in this category is too small for statistical accuracy or to protect student privacy.

The number of students tested includes all students who participated in the test whether they received a score or not; however, the number of students tested is not the number that was used to calculate the achievement level percentages. The achievement level percentages are calculated using only students who received scores.

2022-23 Career Technical Education Programs

University Preparatory High School is an early college-preparation program. As such, UPHS does not offer a Career Technical Education (CTE) pathway, but rather offers various comprehensive elements of CTE skills through HDEV 221, a college course at College of the Sequoias (COS). Additionally, COS offers a wide range of CTE pathways that UPHS students may enroll in and complete while attending UPHS. In the HDEV 221 classes, students learn in-depth about a variety of higher education and career options, the skills that are required for each, and the financial planning necessary to successfully matriculate to higher education and enter the workforce with appropriate skills. Additionally, the HDEV 221 class is offered to freshmen and students receive college credit once the class is completed. HDEV 221 provides students with multiple skills for college and career success. It is the gateway course for UPHS students at the college level, giving them the experience they need for college and career success.

State Priority: Parental Involvement

The SARC provides the following information relevant to the State priority: Parental Involvement (Priority 3): Efforts the school district makes to seek parent input in making decisions regarding the school district and at each school site.

2023-24 Opportunities for Parental Involvement

Parents have multiple opportunities to be involved at UPHS. Parents are represented on the School Site Advisory Board of Directors (SSAB), which oversees the local operation of the school. Parents also participate in the UPHS School Site Council (SSC), which oversees the implementation of federal funds including Title 2, 3, and 4 as well as the Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC) continuous improvement plan and the Single Plan for Student Achievement (SPSA).

Additionally, parents have organized the UPHS Parent Support Organization (PSO), a non-profit organization that engages in fundraising for a variety of school activities, including student events, dances, teacher support, and student scholarships. UPHS parents regularly volunteer to assist in the office and classrooms and to chaperone student events. Parents and community members interested in finding ways to be involved at UPHS may contact Interim Principal Dr. Helen Milliorn-Feller at (559) 737-5451. Parents who wish to have information about the PSO may contact the PSO President at pso.president@uphsconnect.org.

2023-24 School Safety Plan

University Preparatory High School has a School Safety Plan that has been developed in compliance with the California Code of Regulation, Title V, Education, Section 560. The major goal of the plan is to assist in preparing for potential emergency situations. It has specific procedures for implementation during any of a number of potentially harmful situations, such as "Active Shooter," "Imminent Danger," "Evacuation," "Fire," "Earthquake," "Hostage Crisis," "Chemical Spill," "Civil Disorder," "Bomb Threat," "Workplace Violence," "Civic Event Management," and "Bullying." The safety plan is reviewed, updated, and discussed with faculty, staff, parents, and students at the beginning of the school year. Various safety drills and evacuation drills are carried out at least once during each school semester. Every year UPHS participates in a school-wide safety drill coordinated by the College of the Sequoias.

The current Safety Plan was approved by the TCOE Board March 2023. It was reviewed with the staff in August 2023 and with our School Site Advisory Board in October 2023.

Fiscal Year 2022-23 Types of Services Funded

Tulare County Office of Education (TCOE) is the Lead Educational Agency (LEA) for UPHS which is able to offer a variety of supporting services to students. The TCOE "CHOICES" program offers UPHS students service opportunities, student activities, and school assemblies in the area of prevention services, designed to engage students in pro-social, positive behaviors that lead to a drug-and-alcohol-free lifestyle. TCOE offers a College Night each year that gives UPHS students a chance to visit with college recruiters from all over the United States to learn about academic and financial expectations at a wide range of higher education institutions.

TCOE also provides the Theatre Company, which offers students the opportunity to participate in professional quality plays in which they interact with students from other schools throughout Tulare County. The TCOE Special Services program and the Mild to Moderate program provide UPHS students and their families assistance with behavioral health and in meeting the requirements of Individual Education Plans and 504 plans. Also, TCOE provides nursing services to UPHS students. UPHS also benefits from TCOE Behavioral Health Services as TCOE provides a Social Worker two days a week to help students with social emotional issues. TCOE is the California State headquarters of the Friday Night Live youth development program, whose services are provided to UPHS students.

Additionally, TCOE provides UPHS students with the Character Counts program, a nationally recognized program. Academic programs sponsored by TCOE that UPHS students participate in each year include: Science Olympiad, College Night, Mock Trial, and Step Up, Academic Decathlon, and History Day. Professional Development

UPHS uses benchmark assessments (ECQs) to ensure students have mastered essential concepts (standards) in each subject area. Student participate in the California Assessment Student Progress and Performance (CAASPP) summative assessment. Furthermore, UPHS uses both formal and informal student assessments, interim semester grades, and faculty input to make decisions regarding professional development opportunities. University Preparatory has regular professional training opportunities for faculty and staff throughout the year. This training happens in several forms. The UPHS schedule provides for early release on Fridays, which allows professional development to be offered every week. Because UPHS is a dependent charter, authorized by the Tulare County Office of Education (TCOE), frequently professional development is offered by various curriculum coordinators at TCOE. It may include technical presentations from the Educational Resource Services (ERS) on how to integrate the ERS technology portal into lessons, support for the implementation of state standards in the core subjects, mathematics, English, social studies, and science. Professional development also includes Health and Safety issues addressed by the district nurse. Finally, faculty and staff regularly attend professional development training sessions that are sponsored by TCOE and other Lead Educational Agencies regionally and throughout the state of California.

The principal does both formal and informal classroom assessments and mentors teachers individually. The Learning Director and Lead Teacher also work with teachers on curriculum and pedagogy. The principal, learning director, and lead teacher meet with UPHS teachers individually and in group settings to provide training, guidance, and support. The teaching faculty select key professional development themes that will be useful to all and often complete a shared reading which emphasizes these key professional development ideas. These ideas are addressed/discussed at the monthly Friday faculty meetings.

UPHS has a one-to-one ratio of computers to students. All students have access to a school-supplied computer/personal computer which they use to access their classes through Google Classroom, textbooks, and they communicate with their instructors through the school wide intranet system. This technology integration has required considerable training for all faculty and staff in order to implement using the technology to coordinate assignments, share information with students, and post student work. UPHS also integrates Google Sites to highlight student work including a school paper, a literary magazine, club information, lunch activity information, and much more. Additionally, UPHS uses a sophisticated student information system (PowerSchool), which requires continual professional development for both faculty and staff. The major emphasis for professional development for the last two years and into the immediate future is the implementation and integration of college and career readiness skills and social emotional needs of students that have developed post COVID.

Through the Tulare County Office of Education Educational Resource Services (TCOE ERS), UPHS teachers frequently attend workshops to address the special needs of significant portions of the UPHS student population. For example, ERS has provided workshops on how to empower students whose first language is not English to develop strong academic language which students need in all their academic classes. Other examples include workshops provided for critical thinking, close reading and analysis, writing for social studies, and writing to support a logical argument and stance. UPHS has an annual contract with ERS for one-on-one training with ERS consultants. This last year the teaching staff participated in activities and professional development to develop a deeper understanding of Social-Emotional Health as it applies to high school students post COVID and English Language Learner pedagogy as it integrates into their subject area classes.
